TO A WITHERED ROSE.

The spin of life was all too short—
A week or two at best.
From budding time, through blossoming,
To withering and rest.

Yet compensation has thou—aye!
For all the little weas;
For was not thy happy lot
To live and die as rose?

REPORT NO. 2.

The Grand Jury Make Their Second Report Yesterday Afternoon.

The Grand Jury yesterday afternoon made their second report and returned the following indictments:

Victor Moore, colored, horse stealing. George Turner, colored, horse stealing. Clay Means, breaking into railroad car. James Berry, petit larceny.

William Jackson, breaking into railroad car. William Anderson, petit larceny.

Other cases heard by the Jury and dismissed as follows:

William Dixon, grand larceny. Robert Skinner, petit larceny. Ezekiel Smith, petit larceny.

All of these were jail prisoners. After the Jury had made this, its second report they retired to their room and began hearing other cases.

A great many young fellows about the city are wishing that the Jury would adjourn, as one said to the Tramp yesterday.

"You see, I attended one of these chicken fights, and—"

"And what?" queried the scribe.

"Well, d—n it, this a County Jury. Don't you understand? You can't tell what they will do."

DISCARDS DEMOCRACY.

Hon. W. C. Halbert of Vanceburg Joins the Republican Party.

A special from Vanceburg says a sensation was created in political circles in Lewis county Wednesday when Hon. W. C. Halbert, County Auditor and Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, sent in his resignation to the Secretary of the Committee, and announced his intention of hereafter acting with the Republican party.

Opposition to the present policy and tendencies of the Democratic party on the Tariff question is given as the reason. He is the only Democrat at present holding a county office, is a leading lawyer in that section of the state, has all ways taken a prominent part in Democratic politics, and was regarded as a good piece of Democratic timber out of which to shape a Congressman next year.

RUNNING THEM DOWN.

Gang of Scoundrels in Northeastern Kentucky to Be Subdued.

G. R. Burk, a whiskey dealer of Loretta, a few days ago appeared in Paintsville, Tenn., and caused warrants to be issued against John W. Mahan and Dan Price for obtaining whiskey through false pretense.

Mahan was placed under $300 bond by Judge Dixon for his appearance.

Mahan is one of the slick rascals who have been busy at operations at Paintsville and surrounding towns.

There's hardly a jobbing merchant in Maysville who has not received orders from these fellows.

Their plan is to direct a shipment of goods on 30 days, giving each for reference, and sometimes referring to a dealer whom they always pay. If inquiry is made of the latter, he can only answer, "Well, Jones (or Brown, as the case may be), always pays me."

If the candidate for trade makes the shipment he is sure to get left.

So far as THE LEDGER has been able to learn not a single Maysville merchant has been victimized by the rascals.

JAMES SIDWELL, died at Logan's Gap a few days ago, aged 71. He was a native of this county, but moved across the river in 1814. He had lived fifty-four years in the house where he died.

The price of silver in London yesterday reached the lowest point ever known. It was quoted in the market at 103 1/16 per ounce. This would be about 45 cents for the American dollar, would make the subscription price of THE DAILY LEDGER $1.35 a year. If that's cheap enough for that "good times," bring along your name and three 45-cent silver dollars.

Merchants, Attention!

Please read THE LEDGER'S proposition, under the heading "There to Deal" to be found in another column, and then have your name placed "on the list."

MOVING IN CINCINNATI.

SIXTY PIECES OF CATHOLIC PROPERTY NOT ASSESSED.

The Aggregate Estimated Value Is Over Two Million Dollars—A Tremendous Litigation About to Be Projected Into the Courts.

Commercial Gazette.—There is to be a big stir in tax matters this week, and Nick Kleeman will start the ball to rolling by presenting to County Auditor Hagerty a list of property that he claims should be on the duplicate.

If Mr. Hagerty should refuse, the legal fight will begin, and Mr. Kleeman, through his attorneys, will bring suit in the Common Pleas Court to compel Mr. Hagerty to put the property on the duplicate, and this will fairly open the gates for one of the biggest legal encounters that have ever been witnessed here.

It might be supposed that Mr. Kleeman has not much of a case on hand, but when it is known that he has for two long years been carefully preparing matter with which to fight, it can be imagined that he has a big contest on hand. Mr. Kleeman will present his matter in such form that it cannot be dodged. Mr. Kleeman's attorneys are not known with certainty, but it is said they are Charles W. Baker, ex-Judge Bates and ex-Judge Miller Outalt.

The gross value of the suit will be that the Catholic Church has in Hamilton county over $2,000,000 worth of property that is now exempt from taxation and has been since the decennial duplicate has been made, in 1890, and much previous to that time. Mr. Kleeman holds that the County Auditor Hagerty should study only the legal aspects of the question, and give his opinion as he would in any other case.

Going still further in the matter, Mr. Kleeman argues that Mr. Hagerty shall not be held to be not complied with the law in the matter of placing this property on the duplicate. There is a provision of the law that states that all property taxable and exempt shall be valued and put upon the books, the taxable on one page and the tax-exempt on another. The latter is merely for reference and to assist future assessors should the land be sold by the church by the time another decade rolls around.

Mr. Kleeman says he will also show that while the church has been collecting money ostensibly for charitable purposes, much of it has gone into desirable real estate that is not actually needed in dispensing the charity. This, his attorneys claim, is not the object of the law that exempts church land and property from taxation. In fact, it is pointed out that the law is very plain, and states that only that land and property shall be exempt from taxation which is used for "public" charity and for "actual" worship.

As an instance where the county loses money, Mr. Kleeman cites St. Xavier College, formerly owned by William Howland, now owned and occupied by the Female Academy of the Sacred Heart. Mr. Kleeman claims that this is almost exclusively a revenue earning institution. Again Mr. Kleeman mentions the great landed estate of Notre Dame at Reading, Ind., and the school for the blind, the latter institution shelters a lot of men who work out for neighboring farmers, and thus make money and live off of land that pays the Government no revenue, while just across the road are people who pay taxes and work for a living as do the residents of the Notre Dame.

Again, all institutions that have nuns living in them will be attacked. Mr. Kleeman says there is no reason why these shall be exempt.

Again, he claims the buildings used by the monks should not be allowed free taxes. At Delhi is such an institution, and another is at Carthage. The Delhi property, besides a house that cost $60,000, has an acreage of 100 acres attached, and all this land is not taxed because it is a piece of land upon which the buildings are situated. At Carthage is another large strip of territory, and at Reading is another, and all this land is titled as other land and produces as good crops as that of the farmer over the fence.

Mr. Kleeman says if a junior lives in a room of a church in the basement, that room or basement is valued and taxes are collected. He says the books of County Auditor Hagerty will show this. He also says if a Minister of the Gospel lives in a church the rooms he occupies are valued and taxed, yet in the basement, that room and a word is said about taxing them.

Mr. Kleeman will ask Auditor Hagerty to place this property on the duplicate, and if he refuses the matter will be thrown into court.

THE LAW IN THE CASE.

"Houses Used Exclusively for Public Worship; Institutions for Purely Religious Charity."

As stated above, Mr. Kleeman has been two years or more working on his case, and every step has been taken with great precaution and only after legal advice. His attorneys have searched the records, and they have outlines of every similar case that has been brought in the courts; also every decision of the Supreme Court has been secured, and all these data are ready for the final action that will probably be taken Saturday morning.

The law on the points to be involved is briefly:

Churches, burying grounds, public schools, houses, houses used exclusively for public worship, institutions of purely public charity, may be by general laws exempted from taxation, and the value of all property so exempted shall from time to time be ascertained and published, as may be required by law.

It will be noticed by examining the pieces of property given above, that some are returned as having "no value." This means that the Assessor did not fix a value. In the case of the land at Delhi.

THE Free-traders have solved the smoke nuisance—closed the factories.

TOM REED says that Professor Wilson's free-trade "roll of bone" will turn out next fall to be a "roll of killed, wounded and missing."

MR. CLEVELAND'S Postmaster General has just established a Postoffice at Hoodoo, Tenn. There was nobody hoodoo until this Administration came along.

DURING the month of January Secretary CARLEIGH's gold reserve got away from him at the rate of $50,000 a day, or $1,500,000 for the month. Sell bonds, John, sell bonds and increase the public debt thereby.

"GRESHAM" said an old friend to the Secretary of State the other day, "people are beginning to understand why you left the Republicans and went into the Cabinet. It was to burst the Democratic party wide open, and you've done it."

HON. W. C. HALBERT of the State of Lewis has, according to a special from Vancouver, discarded the sinking hulk of Democracy and will cast his fortunes with the party of Progress and American ideas. It is now in order for The Bulletin to say that Mr. HALBERT was never much of a Democrat no how.

DURING the first two years under the McKinley Bill the Republican Administration defrayed all the expenses of the Government from the revenues it afforded and applied $139,238,750 to the payment of the National debt. With the blight of Free-trade starting the people in the face, in less than one year this Democratic Administration has fallen $78,000,000 behind in receipts and added $50,000,000 to the bonded debt—practically increasing the National debt $128,000,000. The Republican plan was to pay the public debt and stop interest; the Democratic plan is to increase the debt and pile up interest on the dear people.

The McKinley Tariff is denounced in the Chicago platform as the culminating atrocity of "class legislation," and Mr. McMillan, speaking in the House in advocacy of the imposition of a tax upon incomes, declared that "any laws that discriminate against one class of citizens and in favor of another cannot long stand." No little audacity was required to enable Mr. McMillan to make such a declaration. The taxation of incomes, as is now proposed, would be class legislation of the most decided and most offensive character. It would put into one class the man earning more than $4,000 a year and in another class the man earning less than $4,000, and then it would tax one, while relieving the other.

NINETY-THREE cotton factories of Oldham, England, have earned less than one per cent. in dividends during the past two years. Is it any wonder that our English cousins are yearning for the passage of the Wilson Bill with a hunger like that for the flesh pots of Egypt?

Just watch for this item in The Bulletin: Tuesday RAY T. LEWIS, Republican, was elected Mayor of Duluth by a majority of 2,880 in a total vote of about 10,000. The Republicans elected sixteen Aldermen. The present city administration is Democratic.

And now comes our philosophical friend of The Bulletin and says he didn't expect anything—meaning the Postmaster. Well, we always had an idea that he was saying and doing things without meaning it. He got up a monster petition to GROVER, wrote many letters to prominent men and made a journey to Washington in search of the appointment, and when GROVER cruelly preferred another he assures us that he was "expecting nothing"—and he got it. Br'er, you're a good 'un.

HEADQUARTERS FOR ALL KINDS OF FIELD SEEDS!

NASHVILLE, TENN., March 6th, 1893.—The Stationer, Nashville, Tenn., Gentlemen: It gives me exceeding pleasure to speak of your Antipainic, as I consider it one of the most wonderful in the way of medicine. My old servant Albert, who is 72 years old, was very ill with pneumonia, complicated with heart trouble and dropsy. I called in my family physician and gave him every attention, but the doctor finally told me there was no hope, and the old man said he would do as I wished. I decided to give him your Antipainic, as it seemed to be performing its regular duty every three hours and the fever began to decrease from the first dose, and a decided improvement was noticed the first day. In three days he was sitting up and in a week he was back at his work as usual, and is regaining his strength very fast. I conscientiously believe it saved the old man's life. Respectfully yours, FRANK SEARIGHT, No. 8 North Rock.

THE Free-traders have solved the smoke nuisance—closed the factories.

TOM REED says that Professor Wilson's free-trade "roll of bone" will turn out next fall to be a "roll of killed, wounded and missing."

MR. CLEVELAND'S Postmaster General has just established a Postoffice at Hoodoo, Tenn. There was nobody hoodoo until this Administration came along.

DURING the month of January Secretary CARLEIGH's gold reserve got away from him at the rate of $50,000 a day, or $1,500,000 for the month. Sell bonds, John, sell bonds and increase the public debt thereby.

"GRESHAM" said an old friend to the Secretary of State the other day, "people are beginning to understand why you left the Republicans and went into the Cabinet. It was to burst the Democratic party wide open, and you've done it."

HON. W. C. HALBERT of the State of Lewis has, according to a special from Vancouver, discarded the sinking hulk of Democracy and will cast his fortunes with the party of Progress and American ideas. It is now in order for The Bulletin to say that Mr. HALBERT was never much of a Democrat no how.

DURING the first two years under the McKinley Bill the Republican Administration defrayed all the expenses of the Government from the revenues it afforded and applied $139,238,750 to the payment of the National debt. With the blight of Free-trade starting the people in the face, in less than one year this Democratic Administration has fallen $78,000,000 behind in receipts and added $50,000,000 to the bonded debt—practically increasing the National debt $128,000,000. The Republican plan was to pay the public debt and stop interest; the Democratic plan is to increase the debt and pile up interest on the dear people.

The McKinley Tariff is denounced in the Chicago platform as the culminating atrocity of "class legislation," and Mr. McMillan, speaking in the House in advocacy of the imposition of a tax upon incomes, declared that "any laws that discriminate against one class of citizens and in favor of another cannot long stand." No little audacity was required to enable Mr. McMillan to make such a declaration. The taxation of incomes, as is now proposed, would be class legislation of the most decided and most offensive character. It would put into one class the man earning more than $4,000 a year and in another class the man earning less than $4,000, and then it would tax one, while relieving the other.

JOSEPH V. DORY of Warsaw, Ill., was troubled with rheumatism and tried a number of different remedies, but says none of them seemed to do him any good. He finally got tired of one that speedily cured him. He was much pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Theo. C. Farmer, Druggist.

ALBERT FAVORITE of Arkansas City, Kans., wishes to give our readers the benefit of his experience with colds. He says: "I contracted a cold early last spring that settled on my lungs, and had hardly recovered from it when I caught another that hung on all summer and left me with a hacking cough which I thought I never would get rid of. I had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy some four or five years ago with much success, and concluded to try it again. When I had got through with one bottle my cough had left me, and I never suffered with a cough or cold since. I have recommended it to others, and all speak well of it." Fifty-cent bottles for sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

O. N. Rogers, Of Adams, N. Y., ate nothing but dry bread for three years on account of that terrible disease, dyspepsia. He states that he was entirely cured by Dr. Hale's Household Tonic and can now eat anything. This greatest medicine known is sold at 25 and 50 cents per package at Power & Reynolds' Druggist.

printed to the support of charity which is purely public, the Legislature may exempt it from taxation without reference to the manner in which the title is held, and without regard to the form of character of the organization adopted to administer the charity.

"The statute, in exempting property from taxation, classifies it according to legislative discretion. And if the property which the statute undertakes to exempt comes within the exemption authorized by the Constitution, it is immaterial how the property is classified or described.

"In the description of the property exempt from taxation in Section 3 of the tax law amended March 21st, 1864, the word public, as therein applied to schoolhouses, colleges, academies and other institutions of learning, is descriptive of the use to which the property is devoted. The schools and institutions which the property is used to support must be for the benefit of the public, and when private property is thus appropriated without any view to profit it constitutes a purely public charity within the meaning of the constitutional provision.

"The express authority given in the Constitution to exempt from taxation 'houses used exclusively for public worship,' carries with it, implicitly, authority to exempt such grounds as may be reasonably necessary for their use, but such grounds must subserve the same exclusive use to which the buildings are required to be devoted.

"A parsonage, although built on ground which might otherwise be exempt, as attached to the church edifice, does not come within the exemption. The ground in such case is appropriated to a new and different use. Instead of being used exclusively as a place of worship, it becomes a place of private residence. The exemption is not of such houses as may be used for the support of public worship, but of houses used exclusively as place of public worship."
